CVFD Seeks Nominations for Prestigious Award

Chino Valley Fire District is seeking nominations for the Fred L. Burns Community Service Award. Nominations will be accepted until midnight on December 31st. Award recipients will be announced in January 2024.

The Fred L. Burns Award was established to recognize an individual who has helped further the District's mission and/or who has made a significant contribution to the Chino Valley community through community service related to public safety. The Fire District's Mission is to provide exceptional service and safeguard the community.

Nominations must be submitted online at www.chinovalleyfire.org by accessing the Fred L. Burns Award page from the quick links section at the bottom of the Fire District website's homepage.
